There has been a long felt need for a forum of the educators of Commerce and Management in the North Eastern Region of India. The need has been felt for exchange of ideas and thoughts among the educators for the development of Commerce and Management education in this part of the country. Number of times efforts have been made to form an association of this kind without success. However, this time at the initiative of a few of our colleagues, this long felt need is going to be fulfilled.

With the above backdrop, on behalf of the Adhoc Executive Committee, I welcome you to the North East India Commerce and Management Association (NEICMA) and become a member thereby help us to give a concrete shape to this forum of the Commerce and Management educators of the North Eastern Region.

Looking forward to your whole-hearted cooperation,
